Over 275 years at the forefront of change

In 2023, Osborne Clarke celebrated 275 years of providing our clients with expert guidance and support through times of change. Our steadfast commitment to innovation has been an integral part of our success.

Whether it was the introduction of the UK rail system centuries ago or today's challenges of artificial intelligence and climate change, we've always been at the forefront of change. We're proud of our long-standing history in business, which is a testament to our adaptability, endurance, and strength.

Throughout the 275 years, we've gained a deep understanding of our clients' needs, and we're dedicated to delivering exceptional advice and services that meet and exceed their expectations. Our centuries of experience in the legal industry are a source of pride for us. We're honored to be able to reassure our clients and employees that we've stood the test of time, and we'll continue to do so for many more years to come.

A different legal partner

Osborne Clarke is not your average law firm. Our clients benefit from our unique approach which is based on:

Network

We have a global presence in 26 locations with nearly 1,600 legal experts. We also have a managed network of international partner firms to help you wherever you need to be.

Technology

We leverage technology to connect with our clients, increasing efficiency and ensuring transparency. This is all supported by our in-house OC Solutions group.

Culture

Our clients appreciate the unique aspects of working with Osborne Clarke, such as our culture of solution innovation, entrepreneurial spirit and focus on the future.

Located here to help you there

Since the launch of our first US office in 2000, our US-based team has been giving clients access to the know-how and expertise that we've developed over the years supporting businesses operating internationally. Our entire US team is based in the US with offices in New York, Miami and San Francisco, allowing us to better understand the needs of the companies we work with. While we do not practice US law, our skilled lawyers can offer advice on your international questions – all in your US time zone. Our services range from representing up-and-coming challengers and disruptors to leading US companies, and we are here to help companies at all stages of their growth – providing holistic legal support for their overseas endeavors.
